

CORAM DEO

EXPECTATIONS OF CLASS FACILITATORS (CORAM:CATALYSTS)

Class facilitators are individuals who catalyze the Coram Deo movement in their own spheres of influence by setting up and facilitating their own Coram Deo classes.

In this role, you will help others discover through this teaching how their faith intersects with every area of life.

Example of a personalized class

Lessons

Lesson 1: Transforming Story - The Breadth of the Story To understand our world, we must start with God's story—The Transforming Story. Beginning with creation and ending with the consummation at Christ's return, we will look at God's history-encompassing mission to redeem, heal and bless the nations. We also will begin to unpack God's plan for his bride: the Church. Go to Lesson	Lesson 2: Transforming Story - The Depth of the Story Here, we examine several age-old questions such as "What does it mean to be human?" and "Where is history going?" in light of three major worldview categories: animism, secularism and Biblical theism. We will see how these worldviews shape the way people live and, ultimately, how they shape whole cultures and nations in radically different ways. Go to Lesson
Lesson 3: The Power of Story - Worldview Basics	Lesson 4: The Power of Story - The Loss of a Biblical Worldview

Elm Street Study Group

Classmates

Josh Brown

Mary Smith

Jacob Rumbe

Patricia Codel

Peter Sanchez Facilitator

Class Discussion

Discuss the class with your classmates and the facilitator.

EXPECTATIONS OF CLASS FACILITATORS (CORAM:CATALYSTS)

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED TO SUCCEED IN THIS ROLE:

A passion to see others learn from the Coram Deo messages and to encourage them in this journey

Understanding of how the coramdeo.com class and lessons work

A willingness to coordinate the group and facilitate the experience (Note: the gift of teaching is not required! We provide all of the content.)

Dedicated time each week to encourage and interact with your classmates online and, ideally, in regular face-to-face discussion

Openness to how God will use you as a Coram Deo class facilitator

If you decide to take this role, we also will provide you with our in-depth Facilitator Guide offering great detail on the lessons and how best to serve your fellow learners in the class.

CORAM DEO:
A Ministry of

Disciple Nations
Alliance

1110 E. Missouri Ave.
Suite 393
Phoenix, AZ 85014
602.386.4560.
www.coramdeo.com
