	Room #1 Nestor and Sandra Romero (Semilla Int'l) -- Machismo and Matriarchy: corruption of authority and of love, respectively Perhaps the most toxic elements of the Latin American worldview are the corrupt ideas of love and authority that Matriarchy and Machismo embody. These ideas, inculcated in childhood and reinforced by a Covenant-less culture, affect every aspect of society. Therefore, living under the Covenant is the best antidote against them, since, at its core, the Covenant is authority exercised in love and love willingly subject to authority. The best human representation of the Covenant is Marriage. Therefore, cultural transformation by the Covenant must begin in marriage and the
	Room #2 Cristina Inchaustegui, Pr. Josias Luna, Carmen Sena, Febe de Moreno, Paola Pimiento (Chrysalis Int'l) -- The AMO® Program: Discipling two generations for Christ The role of parents and the church is to disciple the rising generation for Christ. Most parents relegate spiritual discipleship to the church, and most churches entertain or babysit children with untrained volunteers. The AMO® Program serves both the church and the family with a two-pronged educational program through: 1) a principle-based Christian curriculum for youth that teaches them how to think and reason with truth and 2) biblical, Christian worldview training for the adults who

	Room #3 Heather Hicks (Reconciled World) - Truth Centered Transformation Program Model Truth Centered Transformation (TCT) is a wholistic discipleship program for rural churches in the Majority World. TCT provides simple training to churches, teaching believers to apply biblical truth to their everyday challenges and to demonstrate God's love to others. As His people walk in obedience, God is moving powerfully to transform churches and lift communities out of poverty. While TCT is about discipleship, not development, we have seen hundreds of whole communities move out of poverty. It's a testimony to the power of God and His truth to really transform lives."

	Room #3 Darrow Miller -- Servanthood: the calling of every Christian / El Servicio - Llamado do todo Crisitano Darrow's book/curriculum by this name has recently been released in Spanish.
